"To the Lynden Congregation: Thank you not only for the Bible, the painting, and the farewell dinner, but especially for the love, thoughtfulness, kind words, and help given to me at the time of my retirement and move to Michigan. A special thanks to all the Young People who were involved in the gift I received from them. Psalm 121:8: "The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore." Thank you, Miss Lubbers"

Quotes to Consider

Anxiety: "A great many people worry about the future. They vex themselves by anxious questioning as to how they are going to get through certain anticipated experiences. We had better learn once for all—that there are in the Bible no promises of provision for needs—while the needs are yet future. God does not put strength into our arms today for the battles of tomorrow; but when the conflict is actually upon us—then the strength comes. "As thy days, so shall thy strength be." (Deut. 33:25)." -J. Miller

The Pure in Heart: "Blessed are the pure in heart..." (Matt. 5:8) The pure in heart? They are the ones who, by the grace of God, know that they are filthy sinners and in need of cleansing and forgiving and change within. Do you know that about yourself? ...Do you know your own heart, and are you appalled by what you find within your heart and within your inward thoughts? And do you yearn to be forgiven, yearn to be free, yearn to desire to do that which is right, yearn to live in love toward God and your neighbor, no longer to practice hatred and lust and cruelty and jealousy and envy? Do you desire now, by God's grace, to do that which is right? The pure of heart are those in whom the Holy Spirit has worked the beginning life of Jesus Christ." -C. Haak

Prayer: "Satan trembles when he sees... the weakest saint upon his knees." -W. Cowper

Desiring God: "When the Christian views the Divine Redeemer dying for his sins, living to intercede for his perseverance, reigning and overruling things for his final salvation, he exclaims, "There is none upon earth that I desire beside thee." (Psalm 73:25) And how is it with you as you read these lines? ...Do the things which are so highly valued by the unregenerate charm and enthrall you? Take away from the worldling those things in which he delights, and he is wretched: is this so with you? Or, are your present joy and satisfaction found in objects which can never be taken from you? Treat not these questions lightly, we beseech you, but ponder them seriously in the presence of God. The honest answer to them will be an index to the real state of your soul, and will indicate whether or not you are deceived in supposing yourself to be "a new creature in Christ Jesus." -A. Pink
