Congregational Announcements

Welcome! We welcome Prof. Hanko and his wife to our fellowship today. Prof. Hanko is scheduled to preach this morning and for the next two Sundays while our pastor is on vacation. May God bless us all under the preaching of the Word and in the fellowship of the saints.

Classis West: Classis West is scheduled to meet here in Lynden on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 4 and 5. Classis convenes on Tuesday, D.V., at 7:00 p.m., with a call to worship, as pastor-elect Clayton Spronk leads the evening worship service and delivers a sermon as part of his classical examination. Please mark your calendars and plan accordingly.

Lecture: Plan to attend the lecture this week Friday, August 10, at 7:30 p.m., at our church, to hear Prof. Hanko speak on the topic of Christian education. Refreshments will be provided. Families A-L are asked to bring 2 dozen bars or cookies, and families M-Z are asked to bring a dozen buns. Speech/Program Lunch Groups #1 and #2 are asked to prepare the kitchen and serve the lunch.

Our Church Family

Our pastor and Nancy leave this week Tuesday for vacation in Illinois and Michigan, visiting family there. Pray that God might grant safety in travels and a time of refreshment for them to take up their labors among us once again.

A number of our Young People leave this week for Michigan or Illinois to proceed on from there to the convention in Ohio, scheduled for August 13-17. Those attending the convention this year are Monica Buitter, Cassi Flint, Brantley VanderMeulen, Carissa VanderMeulen, and Caleb Zandstra. Pray that God might grant safety in travels to our Young People and a good time of fellowship and spiritual growth.

Quotes to Consider

"The Day is At Hand" "And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light." (Romans 13:11-12) I do not think that the church today is characterized by the spiritual knowledge of the time. ... We like to grope around in the dark. We do our business. We count our money. We amuse ourselves. But it can hardly be said that we live in the consciousness of knowing that is dawn and that the day is near. Let us humble ourselves! Let us repent!" -H. Hoeksema

"Mammon": "Mammon has two properties; it makes us secure, first, when it goes well with us, and then we live without fear of God at all; secondly, when it goes ill with us, then we tempt God, fly from Him, and seek after another god." -M. Luther

Rewards: "If we live the life of pleasing self and seeking our honor, then we reap misery and woe—but when self is denied and Christ is glorified—peace and joy is our portion. No man serves Christ for nought: in the keeping of His Commandments there is "great reward" (Psalm 19:11)—not of debt, but of grace. This is not sufficiently dwelt upon. There is a reward here and a reward hereafter. The Christian may have much to cast him down, but he has far more to cheer him up and send him on his way rejoicing. He has free access to the Throne of Grace, precious promises to rest upon, and the consolations of the Holy Spirit to comfort his soul. He has a Friend who sticks closer than a brother, a loving Father who supplies his every need, and the blessed assurance that when the appointed hour arrives he shall be removed to another world where there is no sin or sorrow, but "fullness of joy" and "pleasures for evermore" (Psalm 16:11)." -A. Pink

"In Thy House": "What have they seen in thy house?" was the question asked of Hezekiah. When a stranger comes into our house it should be so ordered that he can clearly perceive that the Lord is there. A man ought scarcely to tarry a night beneath our roof, without gathering that we have a respect unto Him that is invisible, and that we desire to live and move in the light of God's countenance." -C. Spurgeon
